FLASHPOINT STAR COMES HOME

Canadian actor Enrico Colantoni, star of television's police drama Flashpoint, toured Runnymede Healthcare Centre (RHC) with President and CEO Connie Dejak on Wednesday, November 9th. Colantoni, who was born in Toronto and had called Los Angeles, California home for the last 25 years before moving back, met with RHC staff and interacted with patients in the centre's physiotherapy room. Colantoni served as MC at the centre's ICARE Gala on Thursday, November 17th at Bellvue Manor in Vaughan. Colantini, who studied acting at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and the Yale School of Drama, appears in the Toronto filmed Flashpoint as Sgt. Greg Parker. He has had roles in more than 50 television shows and films since he first appeared in an episode of Night Heat in the late '80s.
